- (b) At the next meeting, the Chair shall put the question "that the minutes of the meeting of the Authority held on the day of be approved as a correct record".
- (c) No discussion shall take place upon the minutes, except upon their accuracy, and any question of their accuracy shall be raised by motion. If no such question is raised, or if it is raised, then as soon as it has been disposed of, the minutes shall be approved.

VALIDITY OF ACTIONS

11. (a) No act or proceeding of the Authority shall be questioned on account of any vacancy in the Authority and no defect in the appointment of any person acting as a member of the Authority shall vitiate any proceedings of the Authority in which he has taken part.

RULES OF DEBATE FOR COMMITTEE MEETINGS

12. Motions and amendments

- (a) A motion or amendment shall not be discussed unless it has been proposed and seconded, and unless notice has already been given in accordance with Standing Order No. 7 it shall, if required by the Chairman, be put into writing and handed to the Chairman before it is further discussed or put to the meeting.

Secunder's Speech

- (b) A Member when seconding a motion or amendment may, if he then declares his intention to do so, reserve his speech until a later period of the debate.

Only one Member to speak at a time.

- (c) A Member when speaking shall address the Chair. If two or more Members wish to speak, the Chairman shall call on one to speak; and take the others in turn. While a Member is speaking the other Members shall remain seated unless rising to a point of order or in personal explanation.

Content and length of speeches

- (d) A Member shall direct his speech to the question under discussion or to a personal explanation or to a point of order. No speech shall exceed five minutes in the case of a mover of a motion, and three minutes in all other cases except by consent of the Authority.

When a Member may speak again

- (e) A Member who has spoken on any motion shall not speak again whilst it is the subject of debate, except:-
 - (i) to speak once on an amendment moved by another Member;
 - (ii) if the motion has been amended since he last spoke, to move a further amendment;
 - (iii) if his first speech was on an amendment moved by another Member, to speak on the main issue, whether or not the amendment on which he spoke was carried;
 - (iv) in exercise of a right of reply given by paragraph (k) of this Standing Order;
 - (v) on a point of order;
 - (vi) by way of personal explanation.

Amendments to motions

- (f) An amendment shall be relevant to the motion and shall be either:-
 - (i) to refer a subject of debate to a Sub-Committee for consideration or reconsideration;
 - (ii) to leave out words;
 - (iii) to leave out words and insert or add others;
 - (iv) to insert or add words; but such omission, insertion or addition of words shall not have the effect of negating the motion before the Authority.

One amendment

- (g) Only one amendment may be moved and discussed at a time and no further amendment shall be moved until the amendment under discussion has been disposed of.

Provided that the Chairman may permit two or more amendments to be discussed (but not voted on) together if circumstances suggest that this course would facilitate the proper conduct of the Authority's business.

Additional amendments

- (h) If an amendment be lost, other amendments may be moved on the original motion. If an amendment be carried, the motion as amended shall take the place of the original motion and shall become the motion upon which any further amendment may be moved.

Alteration to motion

- (i) A Member may with the consent of the Committee signified without discussion:-
 - (i) alter a motion of which he has given notice, or
 - (ii) with the further consent of his seconder alter a motion which he has moved, if (in either case) the alteration is one which could be made as an amendment hereto.

Withdrawal of motion

- (j) A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of his seconder and of the Authority, which shall be signified without discussion, and no Member may speak upon it after the mover has asked permission for its withdrawal, unless such permission shall have been refused.

Right of reply

- (k) The mover of a motion has a right to reply at the close of the debate on the motion, immediately before it is put to the vote. If an amendment is moved the mover of the original motion shall also have a right of reply at the close of the debate on the amendment and shall not otherwise speak on the amendment. The mover of the amendment shall have no right of reply to the debate on his amendment.

Motions which may be moved during debate

- (l) When a motion is under debate no other motion shall be moved except the following:-
 - (i) to amend the motion;
 - (ii) to adjourn the meeting;
 - (iii) to adjourn the debate;
 - (iv) to proceed to the next business;
 - (v) that the question be now put;
 - (vi) that a Member be heard
 - (vii) that a Member be not further heard;
 - (viii) by the Chairman under Standing Order No. 14 that a member do leave the meeting;
 - (ix) a motion under section 1 (2) of the Public Bodies (Admission to Meetings) Act 1960 to exclude the public.

Closure motions

- (m) A Member may move without comment at the conclusion of a speech of another Member, "That the Authority proceed to the next business", "That the question be now put", "That the previous question be moved", "That the debate be now adjourned", or "That the Authority do now adjourn", on the seconding of which the Chairman shall proceed as follows:-

- (i) on a motion to proceed to next business: unless in his opinion the matter before the meeting has been insufficiently discussed, he shall first give the mover of the original motion a right of reply and then put to the vote the motion to proceed to next business;
- (ii) on a motion that the question be now put; unless in his opinion the matter before the meeting has been insufficiently discussed, he shall first put to the vote the motion that the question be now put, and if it is passed then give the mover of the original motion his right of reply under sub-paragraph (k) of this Standing Order before putting his motion to the vote;
- (iii) on a motion to move previous question: he shall say "the previous question has been moved" as a point of order. If in his opinion the matter has been sufficiently discussed he will accept the point of order. The meeting then moves immediately to a vote on the question that was being discussed. On a vote of 'yes' to the point of order the question goes immediately to the vote. On a vote of 'no' the Chairman proceeds immediately to the next item of business.
- (iv) on a motion to adjourn the debate or the meeting: if in his opinion the matter before the meeting has not been sufficiently discussed and cannot reasonably be discussed on that occasion he shall put the adjournment motion to the vote without giving the mover of the original motion his right of reply on that occasion.

Points of order

- (n) A Member may rise on a point of order or in personal explanation, and shall be entitled to be heard forthwith. A point of order shall relate only to an alleged breach of a Standing Order or Statutory Provision and the Member shall specify the Standing Order or Statutory Provision and the way in which he considers it has been broken. A personal explanation shall be confined to some material part of a former speech by him which may appear to have been misunderstood in the present debate.

Chairman's ruling

- (o) The ruling of the Chairman on a point of order or on the admissibility of a personal explanation shall not be open to discussion.

Respect for the Chair

- (p) Whenever the Chairman speaks during a debate a Member then speaking shall stop and the Authority shall be silent.

Vote of no confidence in the Chairman or another Member

- (q) The Chairman stops business and calls on the Chief Executive. The CE asks if there are 3 or more Members present who would support the motion. If so the CE shall put a motion "that this meeting has confidence in the Chairman". A vote is then taken.

MOTIONS AFFECTING PERSONS EMPLOYED BY THE AUTHORITY

- 13. If any question arises at a meeting of the Authority (or any Sub-Committee of the Authority to which the Local Government Act, 1972 (as amended) applies) relating to a particular employee, former employee or applicant to become an employee of, or a particular office-holder, or applicant to become an office-holder under the Authority, such question shall not be the subject of discussion until the Authority or Sub-Committee, as the case may be, has decided whether the power or exclusion of the public under Section 100 of the Local Government Act, 1972 (as amended) shall be exercised.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT BY MEMBERS

14. (a) If at a meeting, any Member of the Authority, in the opinion of the Chairman, misconducts himself by persistently disregarding the ruling of the Chair, or by behaving irregularly, improperly or offensively, or by wilfully obstructing the business of Authority, the Chairman or any other Member may move "That the Member named be not further heard", and the motion if seconded shall be put and determined without discussion.

Continuing misconduct by a named Member

- (b) If the Member named continue his misconduct after motion under the foregoing paragraph has been carried the Chairman shall:-

EITHER move "That the Member named do leave the meeting" (in which case the motion shall be put and determined without seconding or discussion);
OR adjourn the meeting of the Authority for such period as he in his discretion shall consider expedient.

General disturbance

- (c) In the event of general disturbance, which in the opinion of the Chairman renders the due and orderly dispatch of business impossible, the Chairman in addition to any other power vested in him may, without question, adjourn the meeting of the Authority for such period as he in his discretion shall consider expedient.

DISTURBANCE BY MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC

15. If a member of the public interrupts the proceedings at any meeting the Chairman shall warn him. If he continues the interruption the Chairman shall order his removal from the meeting room. In case of a general disturbance in any part of the meeting room open to the public, the Chairman shall order that part to be cleared.

RESCISSION OF PRECEDING RESOLUTION

16. No motion to rescind any resolution passed within the preceding six months, and no motion or amendment to the same effect as one which has been rejected within the preceding six months, shall be proposed unless the notice thereof given in pursuance of Standing Order No. 7 bears the names of at least one-third of the Members of the Authority, it shall not be open to any Member to propose a similar motion within a further period of six months.

Provided that this Standing Order shall not apply to motions moved in pursuance of a recommendation of a Sub-Committee.

VOTING

17. (a) The mode of voting at meetings of the Authority shall be by show of hands: provided that on the requisition of any Member of the Authority made before the vote is taken (and supported by 8 other members who signify their support by raising their hands) the voting on any question shall be by roll-call and shall be recorded so as to show how each Member present and voting gave his vote. The name of any Member present and not voting shall also be recorded.
- (c) Subject to those provisions in the case of an equality of votes the person presiding at the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

VOTING ON APPOINTMENTS

18. Where there are more than two Members nominated for any position to be filled by the Authority, and of the votes given there is not a majority in favour of one Member, the name of the Member having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote shall be taken, and so on until a majority of votes is given in favour of one member.

RECORD OF ATTENDANCES

19. (a) Every member of the Authority attending a meeting of the Authority, or of any of its Sub-Committees or Working Party of which he is a member, shall sign his name in the attendance book or sheet provided for that purpose.
- (b) Any Local Authority Member of the Authority who is unable to attend a meeting of the Authority may delegate one nominated Officer who is familiar with the work of the Authority, to attend on his behalf. The Officer may speak in the meeting but will not be entitled to vote.
- (c) Any Member appointed by the Marine Management Organisation, Environment Agency or Natural England who is unable to attend a meeting of the Authority may delegate one nominated Officer to attend on their behalf who may speak at the meeting and will also be entitled to vote. The Clerk to be informed of any change at least 5 working days in advance of the meeting.

INTEREST OF MEMBERS IN CONTRACTS AND OTHER MATTERS

20. If any Member of the Authority has any pecuniary interest direct or indirect within the meaning of Section 94 of the Local Government Act, 1972 (as amended), other than an indirect interest described in Section 97(6), in any contract, proposed contract, or other matter, that Member shall withdraw from the meeting while the contract, proposed contract, or other matter is under consideration by the Authority unless -
- (a) The disability to discuss that matter imposed upon him by the Section has been removed by the Secretary of State under Section 97 thereof; or
- (b) The contract, proposed contract or other matter is under consideration by the Authority as part of the report for information and is not subject to a decision by the Authority.

INTEREST OF OFFICERS IN CONTRACTS

21. The Chief Executive shall record particulars of any Notice given by an Officer of the Authority under Section 117 of the Local Government Act, 1972 (as amended) of a pecuniary interest in a contract, and details shall be open during office hours to the inspection by any Member of the Authority.
