

ANNEX 1

Procedures for accessing the NWIFCA TSB web forum

This is a two stage process. All users need to register on the Local Government Group (LGG) website to enable access to the Community of Practice for public service (CoP) discussion areas. If you are already registered with the LGG you can go straight to the CoP website (<http://www.communities.idea.gov.uk/welcome.do>.) and complete stages 5 to 9 to join the TSB web forum. If you not already registered at LGG please follow these steps...

1. Go to the Local Government Group (LGG) website (<http://www.local.gov.uk/>) and click on "Register" in the middle right of the black header towards the top of the screen.

Note that the pictures on this page are changed regularly so it may not be exactly the same as above when you visit. However, the basic appearance and layout should be as shown.

2. A form like the one shown beneath should appear. Complete this and click “Register today” at the bottom of the screen

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "Register - Local Government Group - Windows Internet Explorer". The address bar shows "http://www.nw-ifca.gov.uk/register". The page has a purple header with navigation links: Home, About, Our work, Topics, Services, News and features, Events, and Publications. Below the header is the Local Government Group logo and a banner for "Bright Times, Good Decisions" for Children LSC - 19-21 October 2011. The main content area is titled "Register" and contains a registration form with the following fields: First name, Surname, Work address, Current email address, Password, and Re-enter Password. Below these fields is a "Word verification" section with a distorted image of the word "waterapi" and a "Type these words" prompt. To the right of the main form is a section titled "Already registered?" with a "Log in" button, a "User address" field containing "Government", a "Password" field, a "Remember Password?" checkbox, a "Sign in" button, and a "Forgot your ID" link. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button and several open applications including Microsoft Office Word, Microsoft Outlook, and Internet Explorer.

3. You should then be informed that a message has been sent to the email address that you've just registered and that you should activate your LGG account by clicking on the link in that message. You must activate your registration before you can proceed further to access the CoP areas.

Procedures for accessing the NWIFCA TSB web forum

- An index page will appear. Click on the letter “M” and a table of communities will appear. Scroll to the bottom of this page and go to the next page by clicking on “2” in the number list or “next” to the right of it.
- Approximately two thirds of the way down page 2 you will find a listing for “Members of the North Western IFCA Technical, Science and Byelaws Sub Committee”. Click on “See more and join” to the right of the community title.
- When the title page below appears click “Apply to join this community”

- Follow the instructions on the membership request page. One of the facilitators will deal with your request and send you a confirmation email.
- Open the email and either follow the link contained therein or simply return to your home page (shown above in step 5) on the Community of Practice website where the TSB community should now be listed. If this is not the case, repeat steps 6 -9.
